EXPLANATION OF PENALTY AGAINST AFC NEAR END OF GAME THAT NULLIFIED APPARENT TD.

Umpire Gordon Wells (who called the 2 penalty): "Player #76 of the AFC (Colts) tackle Chris Hinton) ~~was~~ ~~XXXXX~~ reported as as eligible receiver on the play prior to the apparent TD. This is legal. However, on the following play, then same player (Hinton) ~~XXXX~~ switched back to his normal tackle position. This is illegal since he should have either continued to play at an eligible position or left the game for one play. The penalty is illegal substitution, loss of 5 yards. That is what I called."

PRO BOWL '90
NFC LOCKER ROOM

JERRY GRAY, L.A. RAMS, the MVP: "It really is something special to be named by my peers as MVP. We have so many special athletes on defense, especially the outside linebackers, that to be selected really is a special honor."

On Gray on last drive by AFC: "It really was not like a regular season game. We worked so hard during the first three quarters that we didn't want to lose at the end. It would have been very disappointing. The intensity was on our side of the ball. We wanted not only the extra money that is the winning players' share, but we wanted the victory too."

Gray on his TD interception: "We were playing man-to-man and I told L.T. (Lawrence Taylor) to move slightly. Warren Moon threw the ball where the receiver was supposed to be and I just grabbed it and ran. It's a great feeling to score in the Pro Bowl."

On playing in the Pro Bowl: "There should always be a Pro Bowl. It gives you a chance to know your peers out of the football uniform and that gives you a great sense of pride in winning this game. The game should always be in Hawaii. It's a great place to play."

On Playing with Pro Bowl players: "We have the best linebackers in the business. You tell them to stop the run and we'll take care of the pass. It was very intense on the field, particularly in the final two minutes."
